UNIRA Atelier

Three experienced architects from different backgrounds decided to open their own Architecture and Interior Design studio in Porto.

Several discovery sessions and brainstorming with the client were necessary until a name was found with which they truly identified.

An equally crucial aspect of the project involved the development of a brand and a comprehensive visual representation that effectively conveyed and embodied the essence of their work and ethos.

Scenic

A distinctive building developed by Louvre Capital in Lisbon's city center boasts stunning panoramic views of the city and the Tagus River.

Designed by the renowned architectural practice of Frederico Valssasina, the communication strategy aimed to allure high-profile buyers by crafting a unique building's identity and creating a comprehensive set of distinctive brand materials, including a teaser brochure, a premium brochure, the website, and other collateral.

AtelierMob

Atelier Mob, an innovative Architectural Collective, sought to transcend boundaries and transform lives through their practice.

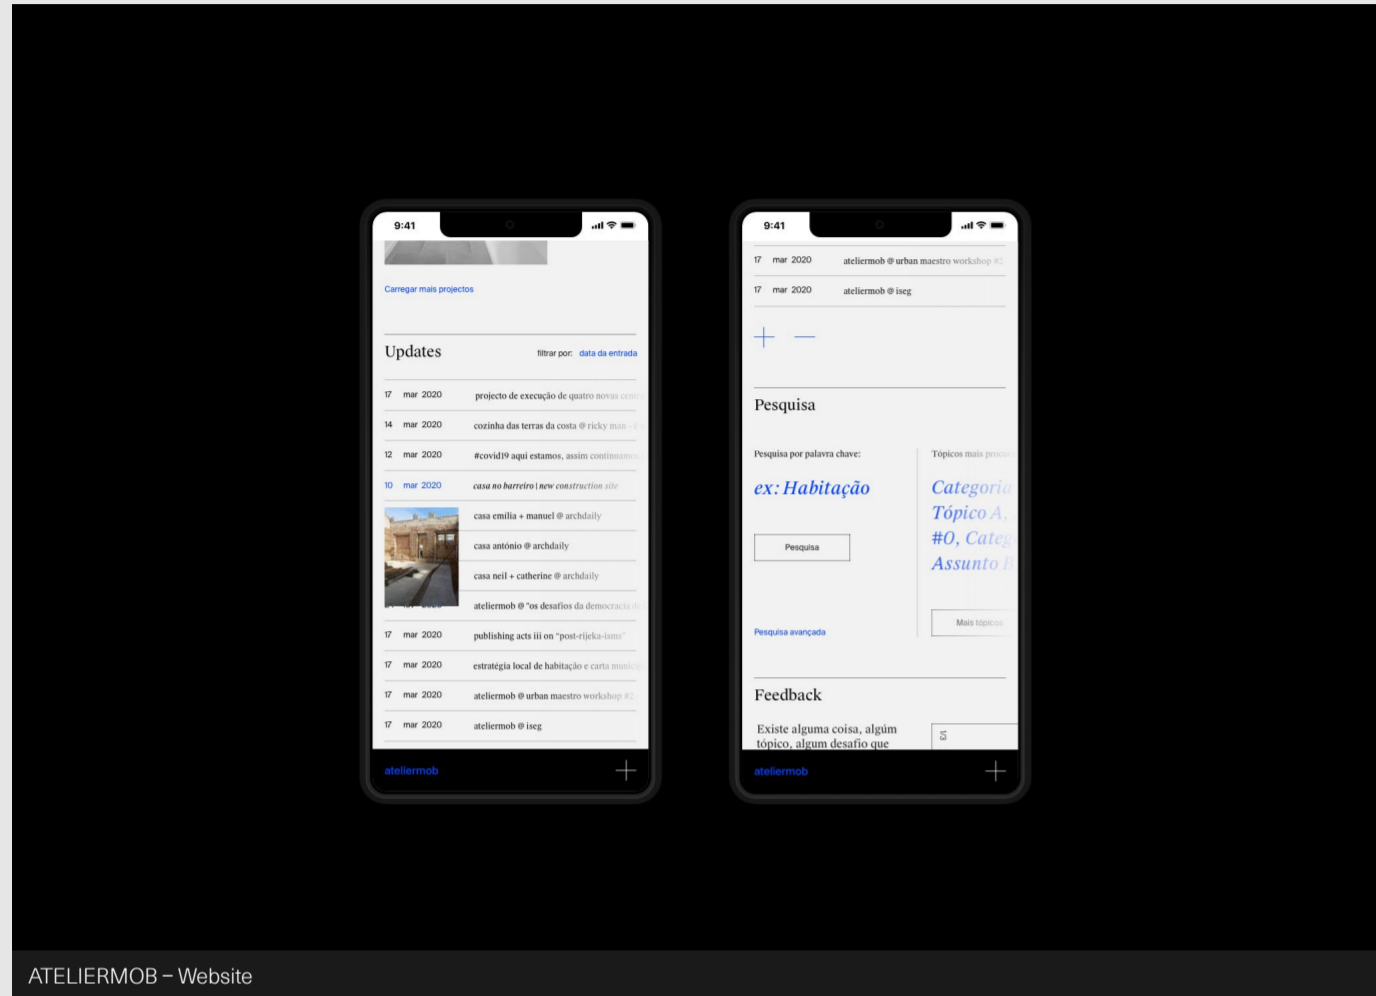

Recognizing the need for a modernized image, they embarked on revamping their outdated website and identity.

The goal was to align their digital presence with their forward-thinking philosophy, creating a visual identity that resonated with their audience while reflecting their dynamic approach to architecture.

BlueStorm

Energizing the real estate landscape, the development of BlueStorm's new brand identity was inspired by the powerful eye of the storm.

More than a visual upgrade, the new identity encapsulates the brand's vigor and transformative spirit, capturing the essence of a brand ready to take the world of real estate by storm.
