

Hi Nataliya,

I've read in your job post that you are Looking for a copywriter. For landing page and website copy.

I've been a copywriter for quite some time now and during this period, I've written a couple of website copy and landing pages, that increased sales and conversion by 35%, for my clients.

The website copy/landing page I write is simple, detailed, clear, and concise, outlining the benefits and futures to convert your target audience, along with market research. Obtaining quality copies. That gives you a return on investment (ROI)

Furthermore, am so excited to have found this job post, I have a passion for creating a successful landing page and website copy.

I will strive to complete your tasks within the stated time frame. And work diligently till your goals are met and your job is completed, I believe complete communication to be responsive and reliable are essential keys to a successful copy which we will both do.

Here is a sample of my work :

Am looking forward to hearing from you. Simply send a message to talk more about the project or send an invite and we can schedule an interview.

I would also like to discuss more on this project, more so I can be of more assistance to you.

Best regards,
Femi.
