

- "Silicon Valley" - This HBO comedy series follows the lives of six young men who founded a startup company in Silicon Valley.
- "Mr. Robot" - This USA Network drama series follows a young computer programmer who becomes involved in the underground hacker group fsociety.
- "Halt and Catch Fire" - This AMC drama series explores the personal and professional lives of a group of people working in the tech industry in the 1980s.
- "Black Mirror" - This Netflix anthology series explores the dark side of technology and its impact on society.
- "The IT Crowd" - This British comedy series follows the misadventures of a group of IT support workers in a large corporation.

I hope these recommendations are helpful! Let me know if you have any other questions.

More

Here are a few more recommendations for TV series about technology:

- "The Code" - This Australian drama series follows the lives of two brothers who work as software engineers in Silicon Valley.
- "Person of Interest" - This CBS action/

drama series follows a former CIA agent and a billionaire software genius who team up to prevent violent crimes before they happen.

- "Nosedive" - This episode of the anthology series "Black Mirror" follows a woman who becomes obsessed with improving her social media score in order to gain approval and acceptance from her peers.
- "StartUp" - This Crackle drama series follows the lives of a group of people who start a tech company in Miami.
- "Code 404" - This British comedy series follows two detectives who are brought back from the dead as holograms to solve crimes in London.

I hope these recommendations are helpful!
Let me know if you have any other questions.